

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1933, do reverently dedicate this year's Spy to our former classmate, Donald Seemann, who died October 15, 1932. His sparkling humor and pleasant voice is sorely missed by his host of friends. He entered whole-heartedly into every activity, and could be depended upon to perform any task assigned to him. He always had a pleasant smile and a word of cheer for everyone with whom he came into contact. May the memory of our departed friend guide us and inspire us to the higher ideals for which he stood.

CO-OPERATION SPELLS SUCCESS IN GALION SCHOOLS

In view of the existing economic conditions which have forced many schools over the state to shorten their school term and curtail various school activities, the Galion Board of Education feels gratified that its schools have operated the past year without any change in the program of educational service for the boys and girls in the curriculum offerings. At the same time the operating cost has been reduced approximately 25% during the past four years.

An excellent spirit of cooperation on the part of school administrators and teachers has been an inestimable help to the Board during this crisis.

It is the present aim of the Board to so conduct its affairs that the present high standards of the Galion Schools will not be lowered.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

As we open our High School Album, our eyes glance first on the pictures of Ted Kirtland, Alvin Spears, Harriet Beener and Betty Bernard. What are they for? Let us read, "The officers of our Freshman year." Here is Mr. Montoya. You remember him, of course, as he was the class sponsor. Why shouldn't the class be good with such good managers?

You ask me what this is? Yes, it looks like a gypsy camp; but it is a scene taken from the Freshman class party. It was a wow!

Look here! Sure, these are cookies and cakes. Why, it represents the bake sale. Quite a bit of money was realized on it.

And now for the Junior year! Turn the page over. See—this is Ted Kirtland, president; Betty Bernard, vice president; Ralph Smith, secretary, and John Boyd, treasurer. The two main features of this year are the class play and the reception. The former was a huge success. Here—this is the group picture taken on the last night of the play.

May next year's pictures be just as delightful and entertaining as the former ones. Come again next year this time and we'll get out the old picture album and reminisce of days gone by.

MEMOIRS OF A SOPHOMORE

As the sun came streaming through the window, I sat in my room, my diary in my lap. The worn little book took me back through the days of the past while the sunlight painted fantastic pictures that were suggestive of my memories—I idly turned the pages and 1 gradually read about the happy little "shavers" that had matured into our own Sophomore class.

Ah! here was a date I remembered well! "September 14, 1931-We had our first Freshman class meeting today. It was exciting to choose the candidates for office; but the moment of suspense soon passed when we learned that Bert Delitig had gained the presidency, while Junior Hubley had blushingly accepted the vice presidency; James McIllyar was elected secretary, and Betty Manning, a newcomer and just a slip of a girl, had received the task of treasurer. Then we chose our class colors—salmon and green everyone is completely satisfied for we have capable officials, I'm sure!

And my hunch was right, for the class officers proved most efficient.

The following pages were miniature skits of school-life. Then I chanced upon this date—May 13, 1932—And Friday at that! But today wasn't an unlucky day for us Freshmen, as we had our annual party. The Junior High gym was a scene of real merriment! Upon entering we had to walk under a ladder! Then there were black cats and open umbrellas and every oddity that relates to superstition. We had a fine time playing and eating. Refreshments consisted of cider and doughnuts!

I can almost re-live that happy class party, for everyone had a fine time! Graduation day from the Junior High soon followed and though our class had gladly counted on becoming Senior High students, we felt crestfallen at the thought of leaving the Junior High-forever.

The gym was a gayety of green and salmon balloons and everyone looked their best. I'm sure every Sophomore stell holds that memory dear.

Upon entering the Senior High we were no longer the "biggest" in the school; that is, the "bosses," whom the others look up to as they did at the Junior High school! But we were the youngest and the underclassmen! Of course, after being the 'whole thing" it was a sorry class that began life at the Senior High. However, we soon got over it, and now we all have that real high school spirit!

soon got over it, and now we all have that real high school spirit!

Our first Sophomore class meeting was held in the auditorium and after receiving instructions from our capable sponsor, Miss Miller, we chose our class officers for '33. Our president proved to be that old master of ceremonics, "Bert" Deibig, who had done such a grand job last year, we couldn't let him go. "Herb" Cohen is vice president; Don Halbert, secretary, and Jessie Stiner, treasurer.

There aren't a whole lot of pages of 1933 filled in yet, but we're planning more good times in the future and I'm sure before the year's over every Sophomore's diary will he flud and everyflowing.

will be filled and overflowing!

The Spy this year has had to face more serious financial difficulties than ever before in the history of the Annual. Due to the present economic conditions, a revision of the entire budgetary system, which heretofore had proven satisfactory, became necessary. The strictest economy measures had to be followed.

Rather than the usual custom of selling advertisements to the merchants, a new plan was devised whereby each merchant sponsored an individual page. With their cooperation it has been possible to publish a Spy this year, and we take this opportunity of thanking them for their interest.

However, to keep within our financial limits, it was found necessary to reduce the size of the Annual. The chief features have been retained, and some unusual innovations have been introduced. As a lasting remembrance of the years spent in Galion Senior High School, the Graduating Class received their Spys, within which their diplomas were bound.

We hope that our Spy meets with your approval and that we have been able to continue the fine traditions of Galion High School.

COMITATUS AENEAE

The Latin Club was founded eleven years ago by Miss Mather to further interest in the Latin language and customs,

The meetings are held monthly on Monday evening at which time very interesting programs are presented, prepared by the committees appointed at each meeting by the President Entertaining games are played, employing Latin words.

This year's officers are as follows: Primus Consul, Joe Zucker; Secundus Consul, Ruby Myers; Adehs, Elinor Hall; Aedelis-Aerarus, Jane Russell.

The pins are very clever, being in the form of miniature lamps of gold or silver.

Each year medals are given to the Senior students receiving the highest grades in Latin. The awards were presented to Grace Berger and Joe Zucker, this year.

This year the club staged a play, "The Gods Condescend," both for a club meeting and an assembly program. A very enjoyable pot-luck supper was held at the last meeting.

All Sophomore, Junior and Senior Latin pupils are eligible. This year's enrollment totaled forty.

HI-Y

With the opening of the school term last September, the Galion Hi-Y club opened its season of regular meetings, held on Monday evening at the club room, at seven o'clock. Under Mr. Widrig's constructive guidance we succeeded in accomplishing many worthy deeds, which helped both the school and community. We renewed our corridor duty and conducted some very good chapels. We also attended several church services at the various churches, alone and also in conjunction at certain times with the Girl Reserves.

Throughout the year the club has enjoyed several pot-luck suppers. The initiations were both very successful. The crowning event of the year was the Annual Sweetheart party, which was held on April 28 in the First Methodist Church. This party was one of the best ever indulged in by the club and was a great success.

The work was carried on this year by four officers and several committees. The officers were: Richard Flowers, president; Charlie Shaw, vice president; Clayton Stevenson, secretary, and Paul Barton, treasurer. The officers for next year have been elected and are as follows: Ted Kirtland, president; Ralph Smith, vice president; John Beall, secretary, and John Boyd, treasurer.

The meetings consisted of business, Bible discussion, and on helping the school. A joint session was held with the Girl Reserves and proved very successful.

The fall convention was held at Columbus, and was attended by several members and Mr. Widrig. A convention was also held at Marion for Junior members, and several attended with Mr. Widrig.

The Hi-Y wish to extend a vote of thanks to Mr. Widrig, the sponsor; Superintendent Bemiller, and Principal Swick, advisors, who have helped the club very much with their work.

Sixth row-Miss Weston, Dorothy Durtschi, Marguerite Boehm, Margaret Shiefer, Darlene Hall.

GIRL RESERVES

Galion High School is really very fortunate in having a Girl Reserve organization. The club's purpose is to develop the girl spiritually, mentally, and physically.

The regular meetings are held every two weeks, and Cabinet meetings once a month. The club consists of eight different committees, which form the cabinet. The officers and chairmen of the various committees are: President, Mary Postance; vice president, Dorothy Durtschi; secretary, Delta Chubb; treasurer, Genevieve Stover; social committee, Florence Smith; ring committee, Wilma Tracht; publicity, Dorothy Shaffer; service, Ruby Myers, program, Marguerite Boehm; music, Grace Berger; membership, Dorothy Durtschi; budget, Genevieve Stover. All the cabinet members have filled their posts with great efficiency.

Each member of the club wears a pin, a blue triangle and circle, with the initials G. R. In addition the club offers G. R. rings, which is one of the highest honors a Girl Reserve can win. They are won on a merit system, consisting of points gained in different ways, and also of certain requirements which must be met. The girls receiving rings this year are: Isabelle McKean, Mary Postance and Eleanor Hall.

The social events given by the club this year, were: Faculty Banquet, Sweetheart Party, Mother and Daughter Banquet, and Farewell to Seniors, besides several assembly programs.

The success of all undertakings and accomplishments by the club was due to the untiring efforts of Miss Weston, G. R. advisor, and sponsor, and the club sponsors: Mrs. A. Postance, Mrs. F. E. Bernard, Mrs. T. A. Johnston and Mrs. C. P. Scarborough, and the splendid cooperation at all times by all the girls.

Inserts-Ruth Minor. Virginia Trapp, Esther Bair, Mr. Snyder.

CHORUS

The Galion High Chorus certainly has done notable work under the direction of Hartley D. Snyder.

Its first production, the "Messiah", was of unusual merit. The soloists were Marguerite Boehm, Professor R. R. Ehrhart, Doris Mae Baldinger, Naomi Tracht, Reynold Sentieri, and Edra Arndt. The accompanists were Grace Berger, Almeda Craun and Miriam Sayre.

This soul-stirring oratorio was beautifully rendered.

The operetta "Pickles", given in March, combined sparkling comedy and a plot of intrigue. It was a huge success and everyone enjoyed it, both participants and audience. Each member of the cast ably took his part. The cast was as follows:

Hans								- Roy Rhinehart
Kinski								George Waterhouse
Bumski								- Dick Wagner
Rumski					-	-		Woodrow Sebastian
Lady V	ivian	Dela	ıcy					Marguerite Boehm
J. Jenn	ison	Jones					-	- John Beall

Jigo	-			-	-		-	<ul> <li>Kevin Cahill</li> </ul>
Arthur	Crefo	nt	-	-				- Elmer Butts
Louisa				-				Dorothy Shaffer
Dancer	-					-		- Elfin Finn

Besides these two major productions members of the chorus took part in Sunday afternoon concerts, Commencement, Baccalaureate, and the County Farmers' Institute held at the High School.

The chorus has done very creditable work and Professor Snyder deserves much praise for his meritorious endeavors.

SYNOPSIS

When the news reached the four college girls, Mary, Rose, Grace and Madge, and their friends that Letitia Willis, Madge's friend, was to become a member of their school, there was much talk, as she came from the country and was supposed to be very old-fashioned. She, however, put an end to their talk on her arrival by proving to be very likable and intelligent.

Dick Bradley, the athletic star of the school, soon was her ardent suitor, which made Estelle Doolittle, a spoiled beauty who cared very much for Dick, extremely jealous. Estelle plans many contemptible tricks with Letty as the victim for the purpose of showing her in an unfavorable light to Dick. She goes so far as to steal Miss Rice's jewels and the ring which was to be given as a prize to the winner of the cabbage game at their Hallowe'en Party. The evidence of all these robberies pointed to Letty as the thief.

"Punch", Estelle's brother, and the comedian of the play, proved Letty's innocence by finding the stolen jewelry in his sister's room and explains everything in the nick of time to the interested parties. Estelle repents for what she has done and is forgiven. The jewels are returned to their rightful owners and, as a happy ending, Letty and Dick announce their engagement.

SYNOPSIS

Judge Dorset, a wealthy judge, is faced with the problem of playing host to a Prince and his first wife, the Baroness Von Eschenbach and his daughter, Valeria. His present wife, Cecelia, and the Baroness outwardly appear to be great friends, but really they dislike each other.

The night before the Prince's arrival, Simmons, the clever and supposedly English butler, captures two burglars, Cash McCord and Stuffy, his dumb but faithful companion, in the solarium of the Dorset home. The robbers turn out to be the butler's one-time partners in crime. They decide to stage a robbery together, when Loranda, the maid, comes into the scene. As the brains of the quartet, she plans a really clever crime. Cash is to masquerade as the Prince, for she had intercepted a wire to prevent the arrival of the real prince. Cash is also to fall in love with Valeria and kidnap her while on the pretence of taking her for a moonlight ride.

Katherine Wells, reporter for the Tribune, reveals the identity of Judge Dorset's two servants and the Prince before they have a chance to carry out their plans. Cash and Loranda, who had previously been married and love each other very much, confess all and are put on probation by the Judge. On the night of the big reception for the Prince, whose real identity has not been made known for reasons of the Judge, he is found unconscious in the hallway. Matters are finally straightened out with the return of Stuffy, who caught Simmons, the one who had hit the Prince, and let him go after recovering the jewels which the butler had stolen. The Judge sends Loranda and Cash to South America to start life anew, and returns the jewels to the owners without explaining a thing, for which he is severely criticized by the two women. Cecelia and the Baroness and all are attracted to the window by the noise of strens and motorcycles. The real Prince is being escorted to the airport from which he is to be flown, by Captain Wheatly, to his native country, on hearing of the death of his father, the king.

THE BAND

We can be truly proud of our band this year. It has certainly done creditable work under the capable direction of Hartley D. Snyder.

Our band played for pep meetings, basketball and football games, for May Day activities, and participated in the Band Festival at Upper Sandusky on April 29. This was an enjoyable event.

The Senior High members are as follows: Clayton Stevenson, drum major; Grace Schalk, trumpet; John Cowl, trumpet; Kenneth Roston, saxophone; Donald Christman, alto; Norma Kackley, trombone; Carnell Zeig, trombone; Nevin Zeig, French horn; Betty Bernard, flute and piccolo; Kenneth Gilmore, Dorothy Nagelbush, Ruth Mae Hornstein, John Beall, clarinet; Richard Auld, tuba; William Bradfield, drums; Donald Snyder, trumpet; Grant Gillespie, trombone; Isabelle McKean, Louise Liggett, clarinet; Richard Appleman, saxophone

Mr. Snyder certainly deserves much praise for the band that he has produced. May every band in the future be as good as this one.

ORCHESTRA

In 1905 Professor Critzer organized a Galion High School Orchestra, which has constantly grown, both in size and excellency. It furnished music for the Junior Class play this year. Mr. Snyder and each member of the orchestra have worked hard and faithfully to make it a success.

It is much to be regretted that the following members will be lost by graduation: Kenneth Roston, Richard Appleman, Dick Auld, Marjorie Dill, Howard Braden, Edith Reed, Bruce Stevens, Raymond Shumaker, Kenneth Gilmore, Ruth Minor and William Bradfield.

May our orchestra grow bigger and better as years go on, by following the orchestra's example of this year.

SPECIAL TEACHERS

MISS BESSIE TODD

Miss Todd has attempted to further music and to produce better musicians in Galion High School for many years. She has been wholly responsible for the fine Sunday afternoon concerts, which have been held in the Senior High Auditorium.

Miss Todd deserves much praise for her untiring efforts in advancing music and raising the cultural training and opportunity of the people of Galion.

MISS ESTELLA SCHULER

For many years Miss Schuler has taught piano at her studio on South Boston street. The many fine pianists, whom she has produced, give evidence of her knowledge and ability to teach.

MRS. L. E. BECK

Mrs. Beck has been the director of Senior and Junior Class Plays for a long time, and much is owed to her for her ability to produce fine plays. She also has many pupils in expression.

May she coninue her fine services in Galion High School for many years to come.

MRS. W. W. KOPPE

The pupils under Mrs. Koppe's guidance prove her fitness for training others in music. She has studied with Madame Rita Elandi and Alice Shaw Duggan, both of Cleveland, and under Maire Roger de Bouzon, head of the voice department of Sherman Music School, Chicago, III. She has also completed four years of training in Ohio Wesleyan School of Music, Delaware, Ohio.

MISCELLANEOUS

G. R. SWEETHEART PARTY

The annual Girl Reserve Sweetheart Banquet was held in the First Methodist Church, Saturday evening, February 25. Colors of red and white were used for appointments at the dinner served by the ladies of the church.

Dorothy Durtschi, the toastmaster, introduced the following delightful program:

Toast to	the	Boys	i						- 5		Grace	Berger
Toast to	th	Gir	ls							Ri	chard	Thayer
Speech				+						-	Mr	Swick

CHEERLEADERS

It seems that the field of cheerleading was left completely to the boys this year, and to them we give the honor. The five boys who lead the cheers were: Virgil Roesch, Gladstone Butterfield, Raymond Shumaker, Ralph Smith and Stanley Laughbaum.

Their orange and blue sweaters and trousers added much to the color and pep of every game. We will long remember their ability to cheer our team on when things looked darkest for G. H. S.

HI-Y WIENER ROAST

On Friday night, October 14, the members of the Hi-Y and their best girl friends met at the High School entrance before going to the country home of their president, Richard Flowers, where a wiener roast was held. The fellows and their girls had a great time roasting marshmallows and wieners, and—eating.

HI-Y-G. R. JOINT MEETING

The Hi-Y and Girl Reserve held a joint meeting February 13 in the High School auditorium. Mary Postance, president of the Girl Reserve, was in charge of the program, and the discussion was lead by State Y. M. C. A. Secretary E. V. Donaldson, of Columbus.

DICK THAYER

Dick started out as a tackle this year, but later was shifted to center, and then end. He played well at all three positions. He is a Senior.

DON CRISSINGER

Don playing his first year of football, played very well although he lacked experience. He is a Senior, and will be missed ence. He

GEORGE WATERHOUSE

George, playing his third year for the Orangemen, was very active on both defense and offense. His line plunging and accurate blocking will be sorely missed in the coming season.

CHARLIE SHAW

Charlie had a tough break this year, in breaking his arm just before the first game. He did not return until the last three games. He is a Senior.

DON KELLY

Don started in the backfield last season, but was later shifted to end, at which position he performed best. Don's shoes will be hard to fill.

BYRDELL GOLDSMITH

Goldie broke his shoulder early in the season and was unable to play. He was a good backfield man, and will be missed, as he graduates this year.

JOE HENRY

Joe was one of the letter men last year, and has had a lot of experience. He was a good lineman, although small in stature. He graduates in the Spring.

JOHN HORN

This was Johnnie's first year with the varsity, and he came through in fine style. Although inexperienced, he received a letter. He is a Senior.

TOM ELLIS

Tom was the sparkplug of the line. He was always fighting and kept the team pepped up by talk and brilliant play. He has another year to shine for Galion.

ED SHEEHE

This being Ed's first year on the Varsity, he lacked experience. But he made up for it in fight, and determination. Ed is a Junior and will be back next year.

CHARLES PRIM

Chuck is one of the old veterans of the squad, this being his third year on the team. This was, however, his first Varsity letter. He will be back next year.

MARTIN VOSSERS

This is Marty's second year on the squad, but also first varsity letter. Marty has a great outlook, and should do things in a big way

CHARLIE GRUBAUGH

CHARLIE GRUBAUGH
Chuck was again the main offensive of the team. This makes Chuck's third year as a Varsity man, and he has one more year to shine for the Orangemen.

FRED KRUGER

FRED KRUGER
This is Fred's second year as a letter man, and has one more to go. He started the season at the end position, but was shifted to the backfield, in which position he played very well.

HOMER SHAFER

This was Homer's first year in football, and being big and learning easily and quickly, he made the Varsity. He has two more years, and great things are expected from him.

TED KIRTLAND

Ted performed very capably in the backfield, but was forced out for several weeks by a broken finger. He has another year and should be a threat to opposing teams.

IOHN BOYD

Johnny playing his first year was a little inexperienced, but his great speed made him a valuable asset to the team. He also has another year to perform for G. H. S.

Insert—Byrdell Goldsmith. Honorary Captain
First row (left to right).—Charles Grubaugh. Charlie Shaw. Joel Ernsberger, Donald Kelly.
Byrdell Goldsmith, James Melliyar.

BASKETBALL

"CHUCK" GRUBAUGH

This was "Chuck's" second year with the Varsity, and although unable to play the first part of the season was a valuable asset when he was well enough to play. He has another year to play for Galion.

JUNIOR HUBLEY

Junior was one of the Sophomores to get a letter this year and was the Orangemen's long shot artist. Junior has two more years, and great things are expected of him.

ALBERT BECK

"Becky" was the other Sophomore to get his letter. He proved to be a very speedy boy and an accurate passer. He, too, has two more years in which to play.

JOHN ALBRECHT, Manager

John, fresh from the gridiron, stepped in-to the manager's shoes, and filled them very well. He was well liked by the squad. He graduates this year.

BYRDELL GOLDSMITH

Although "Goldie" has been on the squad since his Sophomore year, this is his first letter. Goldie is a Senior and will be missed

CHARLIE SHAW

This is also Charlie's first Varsity Bas-ketball letter, and he has also been on the squad for three years. He was a good ball handler, and an accurate passer. He graduates

DON KELLY

Don has been playing basketball since h.s Junior High days, and has had lots of experience. He was a good defensive man, and will be sorely missed next year.

JOEL ERNSBERGER

Although lacking experience, Joel made a very good player, and developed fast. He is fast and an accurate shot. He also graduates this year.

JOHN BRITTON

Johnny seems to have a monopoly on the managerships for he came from Football to Baskenball, and performed very well in the managerial positions. He has one more year, and should have the run of things.

Harold Biles—That house over there surely looks sad, doesn't it?

Charles Smith—What do you mean?

I don't see anything sad about it.

Harold-The windows are all in panes.

Charlie Shaw-What caused the fire in the match factory?

John Albrecht—I understand that there was some friction among the heads of the different departments.

Hotel Clerk—Beg your pardon, but what is your name, sir?

Paul Campbell, after signing the reg-

Hotel Clerk-I do That is what aroused my curiosity.

Eugene Kimes-Will you love me if I give up all my bad habits?

Mary Shupp—Oh, no; you could hardly expect me to love a perfect stranger, you know.

Don Kelly at age of five-Mother, how much am I worth?

Mother—Why, you're worth a million dollars to me, Don.

Don-Can't you advance me a quarter of it?

Mother—What did your father say when you smashed the car?

Althea Ness-Shall I leave out the swear words?

Mother-Yes, of course

Althea—He didn't say a word.

Elmer McClurg—Look, dear, isn't the rainbow beautiful?

Carol Bauer-Oh, yeah. What's it advertising?

Joseph DeGrandis—Did you hear Mr. Widrig tell the story about the nasty military officer?

Elfin-No. What about him?

Joe-He was rotten to the corps.

Minister—Don't you ever attend a place of worship?

Elmer Butts-Yes, sir, I'm on my way to her house now.

Mr. Swick—What is steam? Ralph Dunn—Water in a high state of perspiration. Francis Cotton—The way that leading man played last night set me to thinking.

Wilma Tracht—Ah! The Miracle

Bernard Rose, making a political speech before a large crowd—Now, I ask you, why do you celebrate Washington's birthday instead of mine?

Man in Audience—Because Washington never told a lie.

Richard Auld—I've brought this pair of pants to be re-seated. You know, I've had to sit a lot.

Tailor — Did you also bring along my last bill to be receipted? You know, I've had to stand a lot.

Delta Chubb (in shoe store)—I didn't think you would remember me. Do you know all your customers?

Shoe Man—Yes, I may say I never forget anybody's face that I have fitted with a pair of shoes.

Ben Parris arriving late at ball game —What's the score?

Gerald Cross—Nothing to nothing. Ben—Say, that must be a good game. Gerald—Don't know. It hasn't started yet.

Richard Thayer—Where did you get these awful cigars?

George Waterhouse—A friend of mine sent them to me direct from Cuba.

Dick—He certainly knows the ropes down there.

Visitor—Is it true that this town is dry?

James Bryant—You said it. Why, man, this place is so dry that we have to pin our postage stamps to our letters.

John Albrecht had gone to a western town and was instructing a group of young cowboys in the arts of football. "Mind, if you can't kick the ball, kick one of the players on the other side," he instructed. "Now, let's get busy. Where's the ball?"

"Never mind the ball; let's get on with the game," cried one of the enthusiastic pupils. Henry Ordosch—Roy Rinehart is absent-minded, isn't he?

Dick Flowers—What do you mean? Henry—Well, the other night he got home and he knew there was something special that he wanted to do that evening, but he couldn't think what it was. After worrying over it for a couple of hours he remembered what it was.

Dick-What was it?

Henry—He wanted to go to bed early.

Sylvia Nagelbush—Did the movie have a happy ending?

Ruby Myers-Yes, the woman had the last word.

Althea Ness-Have you ever played on the piano, Bill?

Bill MacAdam—I tried to do it once when I was a kid, but the piano was so narrow that I fell off onto the floor and hurt my head, so I've never tried it since.

Muriel Ricker—That paper says that men get bald because of the great activity of their brains.

George Waterhouse—Does it say that women have no beards because of the great activity of their chins?

Jim M.—When you proposed to Betty, I suppose she said: "This is so sudden."

Joe C.—No, she was honest and said: "This suspense has been terrible."

Little Martha White had gone to church and on her return her mother asked her how she liked the singing. "I like it very much, although the people all said it was bad," she replied.

"All the people said it was bad? What do you mean, dear?"

"Oh, it was so bad that when they were praying I heard them say, "Lord, have mercy upon us miserable singers."

Elmer Butts—How some of those old songs do haunt me, Gerald!

Jerald K .-- Well, they ought to. You've murdered them, haven't you?

Clcola—You're the nicest boy that I have ever met.

Joel M.—Tell it to the Marines. Cleola—I have; to dozens of them.

Betty Fickensher was visiting her relatives on a farm for the first time. She became very much interested in all the animals. One evening, as she stood at the back door, talking to her uncle, she heard the low, mournful note of a cow. "Just listen to that poor cow," said Betty, "mewing for her litte colt!"

Don Kelly—Ma, what's the idea of making me sleep on the mantelpiece every night?

Mother—Hush, sonny, you only have two more weeks and then your picture will be in "Believe it or not".

Tramp—Yes, lady, I had to give up work because I couldn't make both ends

Mary Shupp—Dear me, that was a silly thing to do. What was your work?
Tramp—I was a contortionist.

Alice Baylor-What caused the accident? Was the road in a wet condition? Laura Beck-No, but the driver was.

Carl Shumaker—Did the lawyer make a good case of it? Did his speech carry conviction?

Leroy Miller-Yes, it carried conviction. His client got five years.

Mr. Widrig-Ben, tell the class something about Col. Lindberg's great feat.

Ben P.-I never saw them, but I can tell about Charlie Chaplin's.

Joe D .- Did you ever fool with the stock market?

Shaylor-No. I was in earnest. The stock market did the fooling.

Ruth Minor—So you think my composition will be played after Beethoven, Mozart, Tchaikowsky, and Rachmaninoff are forgotten?

Grace Berger-Yes; but not until then,

Paul C.—So this is silver ore. I nevver saw any before. How do they get the silver out of it?

Billy Bradfield-They smelt it.

Paul C.—That's funny. I smelt it and I couldn't get any silver out of it.

Opal S.—According to latest reports, there are more women under arms in Russia than in any other country in the world.

Virginia Trapp—Except the United States on Saturday night.
